

Law and Society in Times of Change: Theory and Praxis in Roman, Byzantine and Islamic Egypt

Venue: Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin, Theological Faculty,
Burgstraße 26 10099 Berlin
Room 108

2 October (Wednesday)

- 15:00–16:00 Welcome and Introduction, Practicalities
Lajos Berkes, Szilvia Nemes, Jakub Urbanik
- 16:00–17:00 The case of Satabous – The complex relationship between marriage and inheritance. A case study comprising BGU I 183, 251 & BGU III 719
Jakub Urbanik, Costas Balamoshev

3 October (Thursday)

- 10:00–11:00 Patterns in local wills in 2nd-century Oxyrhynchos
Maria Nowak
- 11:00–12:00 Vulgar Latin as evidenced in Latin legal papyri and wax tablets from Roman Egypt
Béla Adamik
- 12:00–14:00 Lunch Break
- 14:00–15:00 Textual and philological problems in the papyri (BGU I 189; P. Oxy. X 1281; P. Tebt. 379)
Janka Júlia Horváth
- 15:00–16:00 Kreditkauf and Lieferungskauf as economical phenomena in the practice of the agoranomoi (BGU I 189; P. Oxy. X 1281; P. Tebt. 379)
Szilvia Nemes
- 16:00–16:30 Coffee Break
- 16:30–17:30 Acquisition of property by monastic communities in the light of the papyri – a case study of P. Cairo Masp. I 67003 and P. Cairo Masp. III 673
Marzena Wojtczak

4 October (Friday)

- 9:00–10:00 A battle of words in wartime. P.Col. 600 (645/6 CE), transcript of a hearing before arbiters
Sebastian Richter
- 10:00–11:00 Greek, Coptic, and Arabic: Language Choice in Witness–Subscriptions in 8th c. Egypt
Lajos Berkes
- 11:00–11:30 Coffee Break
- 11:30–12:30 Final Discussion: Research Perspectives and Opportunities for Collaboration